What happens when 8-year-old Kate, on safari in South Africa with her family, meets Michelle, a professional wildlife guide? The two new friends – one from America, the other from South Africa – turn their adventures into a lively book in which they share facts and secrets about the African bushveld. At the same time, they show how young children everywhere can become advocates for wild animals.

Let's Go on Safari! combines daily entries in Kate's African safari journal with insights from Michelle about the bushveld and wildlife. Kate discovers the wonders of wildlife contrasted with the threats that animals face. She is inspired to make a difference.

The book provides examples of small-scale, achievable animal advocacy projects that kids can initiate in their own communities and schools.

Let's Go on Safari! has been endorsed by significant conservation bodies, including the Jane Goodall Institute, the Sheldrick Wildlife Trust and Global Wildlife Conservation, an organisation working around the world to save endangered animals.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Kate Gilman Williams lives in Austin, Texas. Following on from her African safari experiences, she has become an outspoken animal advocate, with regular television and radio appearances and a strong social media profile.

Michelle Campbell was born in South Africa. After a brief stint working as an economist, she followed her dreams to become a safari guide. Today she runs Wild Wonderful World, where she works on a variety of conservation projects, advocates for wildlife and encourages children – through education and exposure – to get involved in saving wildlife.
